

The

ULTIMATE YARD SALE!

Now more than 60 vendors!

Saturday, November 8 • 8 am - 12 pm

News & Record Back Parking Lot

Corner of Church & Washington Streets • Greensboro

Rain Date: November 15

SCORES OF SELLERS. EASY PARKING. BARGAINS GALORE.

The News & Record is holding a HUGE community yard sale!

Donate just a dollar and find great deals that could save you big bucks.

Yard sales are green, too. Reuse is as important as recycling.

Go green and save green while helping kids in your community!

Your optional entrance donation of $1 benefits the News & Record
Newspaper in Education program and United Way of Greater Greensboro.

Newspaper in Education (NIE) is a successful teacher-tested program that utilizes newspapers in the classroom to engage students in current events, civics and politics and to involve them more deeply in their communities.

Donations are non-refundable.

TIM RICKARD/News & Record

Yard sale entrance:

➔ Church Street across from the Depot
(on the corner of Church and Washington Streets)

★ Parking is available on Church, Washington and Davie Streets;
and in the Washington Street & Davie Street parking decks.

For more information please contact Jaye Webb at 336-373-7294
or email jwebb@news-record.com

*The News & Record is not the sales agent and is not responsible for products sold.
All sales are between merchants and consumers.*

